

BIO-LINK DEPOT, INC.

ADVANCING EDUCATIONAL EQUITY BY CREATING A CIRCULAR ECONOMY FOR SCIENTIFIC MATERIALS

As a 501(c)3 non-profit organization rooted in the vibrant community of Oakland, California, we passionately advocate for equal access to hands-on scientific exploration for every student through supporting teachers, reducing scientific waste and building a culture of sharing.

WHO THE DEPOT SERVES:

NUMBERS APPROXIMATED FROM 2022

81,300 STUDENTS IN CALIFORNIA

43,500 OF THOSE STUDENTS IN TITLE I SCHOOLS

267 EDUCATORS IN THE BAY AREA AND BEYOND

- Receives and warehouses high quality scientific materials from corporate labs and other donors
- Distributes donated science supplies to local science educators at all levels through individual pick up appointments and Open House events
- Diverts over 100 tons of material from the waste stream annually

WHAT THE DEPOT DOES:

A PARTIAL LIST!

BIO-LINK DEPOT WORKS TO STIMULATE A PASSION FOR SCIENCE IN UNDERSERVED YOUNG PEOPLE WHILE MAKING THEIR PATH TOWARDS A SCIENTIFIC CAREER MORE ACCESSIBLE

“ This equipment allows us to give students the feeling of what it's like to do lab work in a real lab. ”

Tamara Doty,
Science Teacher
Sacramento High School

Environmental Science teacher Ray Bargas poses with his class at Justin Garza High School (Fresno, CA) in lab coats acquired from the Depot

HELP US SUPPORT THE NEXT GENERATION OF SCIENTISTS!

THE DEPOT PUTS $750,000 WORTH OF SCIENCE SUPPLIES
IN THE HANDS OF EDUCATORS EVERY YEAR... FOR FREE

One dollar donated to the Depot amounts to 5 dollars of free supplies for STEM teachers

DONATE
VOLUNTEER
SHARE WITH A
STEM EDUCATOR
GET CONNECTED!

@biolinkdepot

info@biolinkdepot.org

www.biolinkdepot.org

